KANSAS CITY MARBLE TOURNAMENT

KANSAS CITY MARBLE TOURNAMENT AND FREE DAY

May 15, 2018 (KANSAS CITY, MO) – The National Museum of Toys and Miniatures (T/m) invites everyone to the museum on June 9 to experience the thrill of an old-fashioned marble tournament and the fun of a community festival—for free!

The marble tournament will begin at 9am as contestants ages 9-15 will play at least two games of marbles and take home special prizes. In order to participate, each “mibster” (marble player) must submit an entry form. Entry forms are available at the museum or online at bit.ly/KCMarble.

In addition to enjoying the tournament, visitors can explore the museum galleries by way of a scavenger hunt and play games on the museum lawn, including hula-hoop, hopscotch, jump rope, and marble runs. There will also be a marble “cakewalk” where kids can win their very own marble.
